

Command Master Chief
Master Chief
Marcus S. Evans
United States Coast Guard

Master Chief Boatswain's Mate Marcus Evans assumed the duties of Command Master Chief for Coast Guard Sector New York in June of 2017. As the senior enlisted member at Sector New York, Master Chief Evans is the direct representative of the Sector Commander on all matters pertaining to efficient and effective management of day-to-day activities within Sector New York's area of responsibility. Prior to arriving at Sector New York, Master Chief Evans was Officer in Charge of the inland construction tender, USCGC HAMMER (WLIC 75302), home ported in Jacksonville, Florida. Previous assignments include: Officer in Charge, Coast Guard Station Sheboygan, Wisconsin; Executive Petty Officer, USCGC ABBIE BURGESS (WLM 553), Rockland, Maine; Operations Petty Officer, Coast Guard Station Michigan City, Indiana; Operations Petty Officer, USCGC DORADO (WPB 87306), Crescent City, California; Deck Petty Officer, USCGC SHERMAN (WHEC 720), Alameda, California.

He is a 2007 graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer's Academy and a 2010 graduate of the Coast Guard's Senior Enlisted Leadership Course. He holds an Associates Degree from University of Phoenix and a Bachelors Degree in business management from Excelsior College.

In June 2014, Master Chief Evans graduated from the United States Army Sergeants Major Academy, located in Fort Bliss, Texas.

Master Chief Evans' personal awards include three Coast Guard Commendation Medals, three Coast Guard Achievement Medals, three Commandant's Letters of Commendations, and various other service and unit awards. He has earned the permanent Cutterman, Coxswain, and Advanced Boat Forces Insignias, as well as the Command Afloat and Ashore Devices.