

Commander Jared L. Silverman
Commanding Officer
CGC ESCANABA (WMEC-907)
PORTSMOUTH, VA

CDR Silverman joined the service in 2000, when he reported as a Cadet to the United States Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT. Graduating in Dec of 2004, he reported to USCGC THETIS (WMEC 910) in Key West, FL as a Deck Watch Officer. Moving across the country in the summer of 2006 he transferred to the USCGC MONSOON (WPC 4) as the Executive Officer in San Diego, CA. Taking a staff tour next, he moved to Portsmouth, VA to report to the Atlantic Area Cutter Forces Office and support the entire Atlantic Fleet for the Coast Guard. After four years, it was time to return to the sea in command of the USCGC ASSATEAGUE (WPB1337) in Santa Rita, Guam. Taking a break from the afloat career, he returned to the Coast Guard Academy as a Company Officer in 2014. Next, in 2017 he reported to the USCGC SPENCER (WMEC 905) as the Executive Officer in Boston, MA. After a successful two-year tour, he reported to Coast Guard Head Quarters in Washington, DC, to Officer Personnel Management at the Personnel Service Center, where he was the Special and Support Assignment Officer before promoting to CDR and fleeting up to previous assignment. In 2023, CDR Silverman reported to Portsmouth, Virginia where he currently serves as the Commanding Officer of USCGC ESCANABA (WMEC 907).

CDR Silverman awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, five Coast Guard Commendation Medals, the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, and several unit & team awards.

CDR Silverman was born and raised in Sayville, New York. He is married to the former Maggie Plikaitis of Glastonbury, CT, and they have two daughters: Zoe(13) and Max(11).
