

Veronica Fields
Master Chief Avionics Electrical Technician
United States Coast Guard

Master Chief Veronica Fields assumed the duties as Command Master Chief for Air Station New Orleans in August 2020 with 23 years of Coast Guard Service. As the senior enlisted member at Air Station New Orleans she advises the command on matters affecting the well-being, morale, and discipline of the command's enlisted personnel.

Master Chief Fields' previous assignments include HC-130J Avionics Electrical Technician Platform Manager, Air Station Elizabeth City, NC; A- and C-School instructor, Aviation Technical Training Center, Elizabeth City, NC; MH-65 Division, Aviation Training Center, Mobile, AL; Polar Operations Division, Mobile, AL; HH-65 Division, Air Station Miami, FL; Avionics Technician (AVT) A-School at Spartan School of Aeronautics, Tulsa, OK; Airman Program, Air Station Miami, FL; Small Boat Station Key West, FL; Basic Training, Cape May, NJ.

Master Chief Fields holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Professional Aeronautics from Embry Riddle and holds a FAA Airframe and Powerplant Mechanics License. She is also a graduate of various service schools including the Chief Petty Officer's Academy Class 207.

Originally from Winslow, Arkansas, Senior Chief Fields enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in July 1997. Her personal awards include three Coast Guard Commendation Medals and the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, all with the operational distinguishing device. In addition to various other personal and unit level awards; she wears the Coast Guard Aircrew Insignia.