Sector Upper Mississippi River Orientation Guide

Captain Martin L. Malloy
Sector Commander
Coast Guard Sector Upper Mississippi River

Captain Malloy reported aboard as Commander, Sector Upper Mississippi River on July 11, 2014. As Sector Commander he is responsible for Coast Guard operations in all or parts of an eleven state area that includes over 2,200 miles of commercially navigable waterways on the Upper Mississippi, Missouri, and Illinois rivers and their tributaries. He leads 284 Active Duty, Reserve, and civilian personnel and over 1,100 CG Auxiliary members, where his duties include serving as Captain of the Port, Officer-in-Charge Marine Inspection, Search and Rescue Mission Coordinator, Federal Maritime Security Coordinator, and Federal On-Scene Coordinator for oil spills and hazardous materials releases. In this capacity, he is responsible for promoting safety, security, and environmental protection, while facilitating commerce.

Prior to his current assignment, Captain Malloy served on the Seventh Coast Guard District staff in Miami, Florida. As the Chief of the Prevention Division, he provided programmatic and operational oversight for all Waterways Management, Marine Inspection, Marine Investigation and Coast Guard Auxiliary functions in the Southeast United States and the Caribbean Basin.

Commissioned in 1990, Captain Malloy is a career Marine Safety, Security and Environmental Protection specialist. Operationally, Captain Malloy earned his marine inspector and investigator qualifications at Marine Safety Office New Orleans. He later honed these skills in the field as Assistant Senior Inspector of Personnel, Marine Inspector, and Senior Investigating Officer at Marine Safety Office Miami. He also served as the Executive Officer, Marine Safety Office Cleveland, and Prevention Department Head at Sector Hampton Roads.

Other staff assignments include Coast Guard Atlantic Area, Portsmouth, Virginia as Chief, Inspections and Investigations Branch where he served as a member of the Sector Implementation Team and authored the Marine Safety Unit construct. As Chief, Sectors Division, Office of Shore Forces at Coast Guard Headquarters, he was charged with leading organizational efforts to optimally staff, train and fund the Sector enterprise. Additionally, Captain Malloy trained over 800 Coast Guard inspectors and investigators as an Instructor at the Marine Inspection / Investigation School, Coast Guard Training Center, Yorktown, Virginia.

A Virginia native, Captain Malloy is a 1989 graduate of the Virginia Military Institute. He also attended the United States Naval War College where he earned a Master of Arts Degree in National Security and Strategic Studies.

Captain Malloy's personal decorations include: four Meritorious Service Medals, three Coast Guard Commendation Medals and a Commandant's Letter of Commendation Ribbon.
