

AMTCM Scott C. Loska Command Master Chief

Master Chief Scott Loska assumed duties as Command Master Chief at Air Station Houston Texas in September 2017. His primary responsibility is to advise CDR Jim W. Spitler, the Commanding Officer Air Station Houston TX, on issues and initiatives pertaining to all Coast Guard members and their families. Most recently Master Chief Loska served as ALPAT Leading Chief for Air station Kodiak AK.

Master Chief Loska's previous assignments include: Air Station Kodiak, Air Station Atlantic City, Aviation Training Center Mobile, Air Station Los Angeles, Air Station Corpus Christi, Air Station Port Angeles, Air Station Barbers Point, and CG Station Bellingham.

Master Chief Loska is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy class 0175 and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course class 00-58.

Master Chief Loska's personal awards include two Coast Guard Commendation Medals, one Coast Guard Achievement Medal, three Commandants Letters of Commendation, and the Coast Guard Aircrew insignia.