

Commander Byron A. Creech
Executive Officer Air Station Houston

Commander Creech assumed the duties of Executive Officer at Air Station Houston, Texas in June 2021. He most recently served as Chief, Budget Execution Division at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, DC.

Commander Creech is a 2003 graduate of the United States Coast Guard Academy with a bachelor's degree in Operations Research and Computer Analysis. He also earned master's degrees from the University of Maryland and Nova Southeastern University.

In his first assignment, Commander Creech served as a Deck Watch Officer on board the CGC DILIGENCE in Wilmington, NC. Following that tour, he proceeded to Naval Flight School, Pensacola, FL and then to Air Station Miami to serve as an Aircraft Commander. Commander Creech later served as the Flight Safety Officer, Assistant Air Operations Officer and an Instructor Pilot/Flight Examiner at Sector/Air Station Corpus Christi.

Commander Creech has been awarded the Meritorious Service Medal, Coast Guard Commendation Medal, and Coast Guard Achievement Medal among several others.

Commander Creech and his wife Emily have two children, Austin (5) and Jacob (5).