

Brian K. McCaffrey

Master Chief Aviation Maintenance Technician

United States Coast Guard

Master Chief Brian McCaffrey assumed the duties and responsibilities of Air Station Houston's Command Master Chief on June 20th, 2025. Master Chief McCaffrey is the Senior Enlisted leader and advisor to Air Station Houston's Commanding Officer, Commander Anthony Guido.

Master Chiefs previous assignments include, Aviation Training Center Mobile, Hitron Jacksonville, Air Station Savannah, Air Station Atlantic City, Air Station Clearwater, and USCGC Venturous.

Master Chief McCaffrey holds an Airframe and Power Plant License from the Federal Aviation Administration. He is a graduate of Senior Enlisted Leadership Course 91, Chief Petty Officer's Academy Class 220, Command Drug and Alcohol Representative, Maintenance Resource Management Facilitator Course, Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training, and many airframe maintenance Class "C" schools.

Originally from Sarasota, Florida, Master Chief McCaffrey enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in October of 1996. His personal awards include 5 Coast Guard Commendation Medals, 1 Coast Guard Achievement Medals, and the Commandant's Letter of Commendation Ribbon.