

Gulf of Mexico Area Maritime Security Committee

Gulf Guardian 2018 Table Top Exercise

Where: Texas A&M Galveston- Aggie Special Event Center
200 Seawolf Parkway in Galveston, TX

When: Thursday, September 13, 2018 from 10:00AM-2:30 PM

- All maritime stakeholders and government agencies operating in the Gulf of Mexico Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) are invited to attend this annual security exercise
- Eighth Coast Guard District Leadership will be in attendance including the newly arrived Officer in Charge of Marine Inspection for the OCS, Captain Russell Holmes
- This exercise will focus on unique physical security threat identification, assessment, and communications procedures for stakeholders and agencies in the Gulf of Mexico OCS
- Completion of this exercise will count towards annual MTSA exercise requirements

The Gulf of Mexico Area Maritime Security Committee would like to thank Texas A&M University in Galveston for hosting the 2018 security exercise. Located with the prominent Texas A&M Maritime Academy, where many future OCS employees receive training, the newly completed Aggie Special Event Center will be a great venue for the 2018 exercise.

Please complete the attached registration form and return to Nick Parham at Charles.N.Parham@uscg.mil, no later than August 1st if you will be attending
