

COMMANDER MICHAEL "MAC" MCCARTHY

Senior Reserve Officer, U. S. Coast Guard Sector Southeast New England

Originally from Sandwich, Massachusetts, Commander McCarthy is a graduate of the Massachusetts Maritime Academy and a Direct Commission Officer. Currently serves as the Senior Reserve Officer for the 70 members assigned to the Sector in both Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts.

His previous assignment was to U.S. Coast Guard Pacific Area Operations, where he oversaw the Deployable Specialized Forces portfolio including the allocation of $26M (OCO/AFC-30), strategic planning for the 16 unit's facilities and managed deployments for Reserve members assigned to Maritime Expeditionary Security Squadrons and Port Security Units. He has also served in Prevention and Response assignments at Sectors Anchorage and Baltimore, Training Center Yorktown and Marine Safety Office Portland, Maine.