

Senior Chief Petty Officer Lee Nelson

Senior Chief Lee D. Nelson serves as the Command Senior Enlisted Leader of Sector Long Island Sound. Senior Chief holds the responsibility of ensuring a bi-directional, fluid flow of communication from the junior most member to the Captain within the Sector's area of responsibility. With a wide variety of duties, it is his job to ensure that all members within the command have the necessary tools they need to effectively complete the mission while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. This includes conveying issues that arise to the command cadre for remedy while maintaining a healthy relationship with all members within the Chain of Command.

He enlisted the Coast Guard in 2004 as a reservist. After boot camp he attended Electronics Technician "A" School in Petaluma CA. Shortly after "A" School while assigned to PSU 307 in St. Petersburg FL, he integrated to Active Duty and transferred to

San Diego to serve on the CGC Chase. His other assignments include Coast Guard Recruiter at RECRUITOFF Syracuse NY, ESD New York, MK-92 "C" School, at TRACEN Yorktown, Lead Fire Control Technician onboard CGC Mohawk, Shop Chief of Weapons Augmentation Team Boston, C3Cen Alexandria, and C5ISC Alexandria, VA.

Senior Chief Nelson is a graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy (Class 258). His awards include two Coast Guard Commendation Medals, two Coast Guard Achievement Medals with operational distinguishing device, and three Coast Guard Letters of Commendation with operational distinguishing device. He is married to wife, Denise and a proud father of his daughter, Lilliana.