

Joel B. Carse, Commander USCG
Deputy, U.S. Coast Guard Sector Boston

Commander Joel Carse serves as the Deputy Sector Commander for Sector Boston. He is a 2003 graduate from Officer Candidate School. Prior to that, he had enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1993 and spent 10 years as a Damage Controlmen First Class Petty Officer, serving aboard the U.S.S NITRO (AE-23), the U.S.S WHIDBEY ISLAND (LSD-41) and U.S.S. WASP (LHD-1).

He received his Bachelors of Science in Industrial Technology from Southern Illinois University while stationed at Naval Air Technical Training Center, Pensacola FL. Additionally, he received his Masters of Science in Occupational Safety & Health and a Masters of Art in Defense and Strategic Studies for the Naval War College.

His previous tours include serving as a Port Engineer at Naval Engineering Support Unit Portsmouth, Chief of Enforcement at Sector Boston, Deputy for Maritime Security at Atlantic Area Command (LANT-35LE), Executive Officer of Maritime Force Protection Unit, Kings Bay GA and Chief, Response Training Branch, Yorktown VA.

CDR Carse is married to the former Stacey Deis of West Springfield Massachusetts, and they have three children; Jacob (22), Noah (20), and Lauren (16). Their son Jacob is a class of 2022 graduate from the Coast Guard Academy and stationed on the CGC ELM in Astoria, OR. Noah is a Machinery Technician 3rd Class Petty Officer at Station Morro Bay, CA.