

ETCS Jack Burr, U. S. Coast Guard Reserve

Senior Chief Jack Burr is currently assigned as the Communications Division Chief and Command Security Officer at Port Security Unit 309 in Port Clinton, OH. He was advanced to Senior Chief Electronics Technician in June 2020 and has over 16 years of service.

Senior Chief Burr enlisted in the Coast Guard Reserves in February 2004 at the age of 19. His first unit was ESD Cleveland, after a short period there, he left for ET A-school at TRACEN Petaluma. After returning to ESD Cleveland for a short time after A-school, he transferred to ESD Detroit in 2005. During his tour in Detroit, he was mobilized to ESU NOLA in response to Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita. In 2009, then ET1 Burr transferred to Port Security Unit 309. During his tour he would support the unit's 2012 deployment to Kuwait Naval Base. In 2015 he transferred back to ESD Detroit, where he made Chief Electronics Technician. Most recently, Senior Chief Burr served as the Communications Division Chief at Port Security 309 and in 2017 deployed with the unit to Joint Task Force Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Senior Chief Burr's personal awards include CG Commendation Medal, CG Achievement Medals, CG Commandant Letter of Commendation ribbons, CG Reserve Good Conduct Medal, Port Security Unit Insignia and numerous unit and team citations.

Senior Chief Burr was born in Camarillo, CA and has lived in the Detroit area most of his life. He has two teenage children, Aidan and Olivia and currently resides in Chesterfield Twp, MI. In his civilian career, he is employed as a Resident Engineer at BCS Automotive Interface Solutions.