

MKCM Robert W. Linn

Command Senior Chief
Sector Sault Sainte Marie
United States Coast Guard

Master Chief Robert W. Linn assumed duties of Command Senior Chief, Sector Sault Sainte Marie, in June 2018. Master Chief Linn's previous assignments include Engineer Petty Officer of CGC ANACAPA in Petersburg, AK, Engineer Petty Officer of CG Aids to Navigation Team Hampton Roads in Portsmouth, VA, CGC BELUGA in Norfolk, VA, CGC MUSTANG in Seward, AK, CGC POLAR STAR in Seattle, WA, CGC Chock in Portsmouth, VA and Machinery Technician class "A" school. Master Chief Robert W. Linn assumed duties of Command Senior Chief, Sector Sault Sainte Marie, in June 2018.

Master Chief Linn is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Academy Class 185, and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course Class 61. He holds multiple certificates in organizational leadership disciplines and is a professionally trained and certified executive coach. Master Chief Linn is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Academy Class 185, and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course Class 61. He holds multiple certificates in organizational leadership disciplines and is a professionally trained and certified executive coach.

Master Chief Linn's personal awards include three Coast Guard Commendation Medals with Operational Distinguishing Device, one Coast Guard Achievement Medal with Operational Distinguishing Device, and two Commandant Letters of Commendation with Operational Distinguishing Device and various other personal and unit awards. He has earned his Permanent Cutterman and Advanced Boat Forces insignias.

Master Chief Linn is a native of Columbus, Ohio, and is married to the former Miss Tancy Lee of Castle Rock, CO (a Coast Guard Veteran of 8 years) together they have three children, Moira, Magnus and Beatrice. Together they enjoy, lifelong learning, being stationed in remote places, and providing their children with new and exciting experiences.