

Harrison Hirsh
Master Chief Aviation Maintenance Technician
United States Coast Guard

Master Chief Harrison Hirsh assumed the duties as Command Master Chief at Air Station Traverse City in June 2024 after fleeting up from Leading Chief Petty Officer. His primary responsibility is to advise the Commanding Officer and ensure the well-being of unit personnel through morale, job satisfaction, discipline, family support, and training.

Master Chief Hirsh's previous assignments include Air Station Port Angeles, Sector Humboldt Bay, Air Station Borinquen, Air Station Traverse City, AMT 'A' School, Air Station Barbers Point, and USCGC RUSH.

Master Chief Hirsh attended Jacksonville University & Miami (OH) University and is a graduate of the Chief Petty Officer's Academy Class 226 where he won the Fitness Award for his class. In 2022, he graduated from the Senior Enlisted Leadership Course at USCGA. He is also a graduate of various service schools including the Coast Guard Advanced Helicopter Rescue School, the Navy Advanced Composite Repair School, the Air Force Arctic Survival School, and the NTSB Advanced Mishap Analysis and Recovery Course. In addition, he earned his FAA Aircraft Mechanics license and FAA Private Pilot's license.

Originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, Master Chief Hirsh enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in May 2005 as a member of recruit company Foxtrot-171. His personal awards include three Coast Guard Commendation Medals, four Coast Guard Achievement Medals, and four Commandant's Letter of Commendation Ribbons, all with the operational distinguishing device. In addition to various other personal and unit level awards, he wears the Permanent Aircrew Insignia.