

Commander Brad J. Rosello assumed the duties as Senior Reserve Officer for Sector Lake Michigan based in Milwaukee, WI in October 2017. He is the leading advocate for the Reserve force across a four-state area on and around Lake Michigan.

He previously served as Deployment Distribution Operations Center Deputy Chief at U. S. Transportation Command where he supported the air, land, and sea transportation for the Department of Defense. Prior assignments included Senior Reserve Officer positions at Marine Safety Unit Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Marine Safety Unit Chicago, Illinois.

During his 9 years on active duty Commander Rosello served at the Marine Safety Center in Washington, D.C. and aboard the CGC BOUTWELL.

Commander Rosello graduated with honors from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in 1996, with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering. He also graduated from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor where he received his M.S. in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineer as well as a M.S.E. in Mechanical Engineering. He is also licensed as a Professional Engineer.

Individual military awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, two Coast Guard Commendation medals, two Coast Achievement Medals with Operational Distinguishing Device, and various service and unit awards.