

ETCS CHRISTOPHER BRYANT
Sector Lake Michigan Command Senior Chief-Reserve

Senior Chief Christopher Bryant assumed duties as Command Senior Chief, Sector Lake Michigan on 01 Sep 2017. His primary responsibility is to advise CAPT Thomas A. Stuhlreyer, the Commanding Officer of Sector Lake Michigan on issues and initiatives pertaining to all Reserve Coast Guard members and their families within Sector Lake Michigan. Sector Lake Michigan includes 21 stations and 1,639 miles of coastline covering four states and 138 miles of river way.

Most recently Senior Chief Bryant served as Communications Chief for PSU 309 in Port Clinton OH.

Senior Chief Bryant's previous assignments include: ESD Milwaukee, NMCB 25 with the Navy, 2nd Battalion 24th Marines, 2nd Battalion 7th Marines, Fleet Hospital 5- Zagreb Croatia, Naval Hospital Newport RI, and Great Lakes Naval Hospital.

Senior Chief Bryant is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy class 37 and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course class 66. Senior Chief Bryant holds an Associates from DeVry Institute of Technology, and Bachelors from DeVry University, a Diagnostic Imaging Specialty Certification from Penn State Kensington, and multiple other certifications.

Senior Chief Bryant's personal awards include one Coast Guard Commendation Medal, two Coast Guard Achievement Medals with Operational Distinguishing Device, Two Navy Achievement Medals, The Coast Guard Commandant's Letter of Commendation with Operational Distinguishing Device, the Joint Meritorious Unit Commendation, and many other service awards. Also; the Port Security Unit Warfare device, Enlisted Scuba Diver Device, and the Fleet Marine Force designator.