

Master Chief Greg Banducci assumed his duties at Air Station Borinquen, Puerto Rico on June 3rd 2022. His role as Command Master Chief is to be present and accessible to the workforce to assist them, navigating through challenges as well as celebrating their successes in all matters pertaining to the welfare, health, job satisfaction, morale utilization and professional development. He also has been a member of both the Leadership Diversity Advisory Council and the Morale Committee, spearheading several events for each.

Master Chief Banducci's previous assignments include, Air Station Astoria, Oregon; Aviation Training Center, Mobile, Alabama; Air Station Clearwater, Florida; Air Station San Diego, California; Station Noyo River, Fort Bragg, California.

Master Chief Banducci holds a Bachelor in Science Degree in Aeronautical Engineering Technology from Purdue University, an Associates in Science Degree in Professional Aeronautics from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University. Along with a Federal Aviation Administration Airframe and Power Plant license. He is a graduate of the Chiefs Petty Officer Academy Class 210 and the Senior Enlisted Leadership Course Class 86.

Master Chief Banducci enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in May 1996. His personal awards include the two Coast Guard Commendation Medal, the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, three Commandant's Letter of Commendation ribbons, eight Good Conducts Medals, Coast Guard Overseas Ribbon, the Humanitarian Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Medal, in addition to various other personal and unit level awards. He wears the aircrew insignia.